MR. T. TIMS is instructed to SELL by AUCTION, at the MART, on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, at TWELVE, the second portion of the above-named very desirable PROPERTY: comprising 61 freehold sites for villas, &c. in eligible plots of various sizes, with frontages to a first rate road, in a highly respectable neighbourhood, surrounded by gardens and grounds, within easy distance of the two principal west-end roads and the North and South Western Railway stations. Mr. TIMS begs to remark that, as in addition to the auction in August last, further sales have been made by private contract for important and immediate building purposes, there can be no doubt but that these sites will prove safe and profitable investments.—Particulars and plans ten days previous, at the Pack Horse Inn, Turnham-green, where the Acton-road intersects; the George Inn, Acton; at the Auction Mart; the Offices of C. F. CUBBY, Esq. Solicitor, 8, Regent-street; and of the Auctioneer, 62, Upper Charlotte-street, Fitzroy-square.

The COTTENHAM-PARK ESTATE, the beautiful and much-admired seat of the late Lord Chancellor Cottenham, Wimbledon-common, Surrey.

MESSRS. HOGGART, NORTON, and TRIST have received instructions to offer for SALE, at the MART, on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5 (instead of October 29, as previously advertised), at TWELVE, in lots, the COTTENHAM PARK ESTATE, a most important and valuable Freehold Property, land-tax redeemed; within one mile and a half of the Wimbledon Station on the South-Western Railway, two miles from the Putney Station, and six miles from the new bridge now building over the Thames from Belgrave-square to the new park at Battersea. The extent of the property is 70 acres. It is bounded by capital roads, two miles in length, and giving with the new roads upwards of seven miles of building frontages. The grounds slope from the common towards the south; the soil is dry and healthy, the neighbourhood exceedingly select, and the situation is one of the most beautiful that can be imagined, abounding in every pleasing diversity of the most extensive, rich and highly picturesque scenery. There is great facility of cheap and rapid access to all parts of the metropolis, and with the prospect, as buildings progress, of a station being built on that portion of the estate which is now bounded by the South-Western Railway. The mansion, which possesses every accommodation for a highly respectable family, is placed on a finely elevated site, commanding some of the most magnificent scenery, without the possibility of interference from the adjoining lots, with its beautiful pleasure-and grounds, beautiful shrubbery walks abounding with various shrubs and evergreens, lawns and paddocks, adorned with stately cedars and splendid forest timber, productive kitchen gardens, greenhouses, and the various offices connected with the mansion: the whole containing about 14 acres, will form the first lot. Lots 2 to 15 will consist of very beautiful and commanding sites for the erection of superior first-class residences, having frontages to the high road leading from Wimbledon to Kingston, and overlooking the finely-timbered woods and estate of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, and will contain from four to six acres each, giving ample area for gardens and a paddock. The remainder of the estate is intersected by capital roads, 50 feet wide, commencing from the high road near Mr. Trist's residence leading to Kingston, Wimbledon, and to the South-Western Railway, and will be subdivided into lots of from two to five acres each, leaving a few larger lots on the eastern part for building speculation, or for accommodation land of very considerable value. The whole of the arrangements of the several lots are shown on the plan accompanying the particulars, and are marked out on the land, so that purchasers may readily distinguish them on the spot.—May be viewed, and particulars had on the premises; at the Rose and Crown, Wimbledon; the Spread Eagle, Wandsworth; Railway Hotel, Kingston; of Messrs. Letts, Brothers, and Macdonald, Solicitors, Abingdon-street, Westminster; at the Mart; and of Messrs. Hoggart, Norton, and Trist, 62, Old Broad-street, Royal Exchange.

SALES BY AUCTION.

WARD'S PERIODICAL TIMBER SALES.—The next SALE will take place at the TIMBER YARD, 8, Oxford-street, on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, at Eleven, and will consist of mahogany, rosewood, wainscot, deals, timber, &c. The yard is now ready to receive such timber as may be sent in. No goods received after Tuesday, the 16th of November, for this sale.—ROBERT WARD, Timber Auctioneer, 8, Oxford-street. The business of timber merchant carried on as usual.

7,500 Pieces of Paperhangings.

MR. BRAY, Jun. will SELL, at his ROOMS, 359, High Holborn, on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, at TWELVE, upwards of 7,500 PIECES of PAPERHANGINGS, suitable for the drawing and dining rooms, parlours, bed-rooms, and staircases.—May be viewed, and catalogues had.

MARBLE.—TO MARBLE MERCHANTS, MASONS, BUILDERS, &c.

SIR W. S. HARRIS'S LIGHTNING CONDUCTORS.—The public attention, as well as that of Church Building Committees, and those interested in the preservation of churches and all description of buildings, is called to the very many and several disastrous effects of the heavy thunder-storms which have prevailed. THOS. W. GRAY, 70, King William-street, City, London, respectfully announces that he is the only person authorised by Sir W. Harris to apply his Lightning Conductors, and who will not be responsible for their application by any other persons. The peculiar form and adaptation of these Conductors is such as to safely carry off any amount of electric fluid, as evinced in many authenticated instances at sea, both in the navy and merchant service as well as in buildings; and to show the importance of these Conductors, it may be stated that the Prize Council Medal of the Great Exhibition was awarded for them. Mr. T. W. GRAY will be happy to supply any information that may be desired, and to furnish estimates of the cost for fitting the Conductors.

NOISELESS RINGS.

GUTTA PERCHA CURTAIN and CORNICE RINGS.—These Rings have been much approved by the Faculty, particularly for nervous and aged patients. Owing to the peculiar properties of Gutta Percha, these rings do not make a noise when drawn along the pole or rod. The following sizes may be had, either with or without loops:—Rings; 1 inch diameter, 1½ inch ditto, 2 inch ditto, 2½ inch ditto, 3 inch ditto, 3½ inch ditto.

TUBING, LINING FOR TANKS, ORNAMENTAL MOULDINGS, &c. manufactured by the GUTTA PERCHA COMPANY (Patentees), 18, Wharf-road, City-road, London.

GREAT INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, 1853.

NOTICE to EXHIBITORS.—In consequence of the numerous applications from parties wishing to prepare specimens of Manufacture expressly for this Exhibition, requesting an early decision on their application for space, the Committee hereby give Notice that they will proceed immediately to consider all such applications, and to allot such space as may appear to them most conducive to the general interest of the Exhibition. Forms of application for space, and any information required may be had at the London Office of the Exhibition, Society of Arts, Adelphi, Strand.—By order of the General Committee,

C. P. RONEY, Secretary.
